Ocean County's 250th Anniversary of the American Revolution (1775–1783)

Ocean County is commemorating the 250th anniversary (Semiquincentennial) of the American Revolution (1775–1783) in what is now Ocean County, New Jersey.

Commissioner Robert S. Arace stated, "Ocean County is leading the State of New Jersey in commemorating this important milestone in American history. I encourage residents and visitors to explore our recently updated website at www.ocean250.org."

As part of this initiative, the County has developed a traveling educational trailer that has participated in 25 parades and 178 events throughout New Jersey.

Ocean County Parks & Recreation has been actively engaged in planning and programming for the Semiquincentennial for the past five years and will continue these efforts through April 3, 2033.

Commissioner Arace added, "The Cedar Bridge County Historic Site, located at 200 Old Halfway Road in Barnegat, NJ 08005, is a restored c.1816 tavern that offers an excellent introduction to late 18th- and early 19th-century life in the New Jersey Pinelands. The site is open Thursday through Monday and by special arrangement."

Schools and civic organizations may also arrange complimentary guided tours of the facility. Additionally, the Ocean County Board of Commissioners offers limited financial assistance for school bus transportation to and from the tavern.

The first major event of 2026 will be the REVNJ 5K Run and 1K Walk at Cedar Bridge Tavern, to be held on Sunday, March 29, with registration beginning at 7:30 a.m. This event will be the first of five planned REVNJ events statewide.

The second event will be the regional meeting of the League of Historical Societies of New Jersey, scheduled for Saturday, April 18, at Cedar Bridge Tavern. The featured speaker will be Robert Cobb, presenting on privateers during the American Revolution.

In recognition of Arbor Day, the Ocean County Parks Department, in partnership with the Ocean County Shade Tree Commission, will plant a Liberty Tree on the Ocean County Courthouse lawn in Toms River at 10:00 a.m. on April 22.

Commissioner Arace also announced the release of the Ocean County 250th Revolutionary War Activity Book. This publication complements The 250th Anniversary: American Revolution in War – Ocean County, New Jersey, Volume IV. Both books are available in print and online at www.ocean250.org.

Ocean County will participate in the Wawa Welcome America Presents: Salute to Independence Parade in Philadelphia on July 3, featuring the 250th Anniversary trailer, the Ocean County Liberty Bell, and the mini whale boat Hero's Revenge.

Many Ocean County municipalities will host parades, picnics, and fireworks on Independence Day. At 1:00 p.m., the County will conduct a ceremony on the Courthouse lawn on Washington Street in Toms River, featuring a multi-reader presentation of the Declaration of Independence.

At 2:00 p.m., the County will sponsor local participation in Ringing from Sea to Shining Sea, including the ringing of major Ocean County bells such as the Dewtler Victory Bell and the Ocean County Liberty Bell. Local bell choirs have been invited to participate.

The day's events will conclude with a patriotic concert on the lawn of the Ocean County Library on Washington Street.

"Commissioner Arace added "The Semiquincentennial is an opportunity for all of us to connect with our shared history and celebrate the enduring spirit of our community. I encourage residents, families, and visitors to take part in these programs and events as we honor the past and come together to shape the future of Ocean County."

Your Ocean County Lands Trust Property

Westray Ave

This property is approximately 1.29 acres and located in Island Heights Borough; this is the County's third purchase in Island Heights. This property is one of the last remaining undeveloped tracts in the Borough and had a concept design for 5 single-family homes to be built on it. Westray Ave is the largest undeveloped tract left in the historic district of IH South of Lake Ave. This property is located adjacent to the historic Wanamaker Field and Barnegat Bay. The Barnegat Bay is crucial for the migratory path for numerous bird species. The Island Heights community has voiced strong support for the County's acquisition of this property and has expressed sincere gratitude for its preservation.

Floriography: The Victorian Language of Flowers

These days, social media and texts make it easy to let someone know how you feel about them. Back in the late 1800s, though, directly expressing your feelings was frowned upon. So what did those straight-laced Victorians do? They developed a “language” of combining flowers to let that special someone know how they were feeling... whether it was love, compassion, jealousy, or even “I can’t stand the very thought of you!” Learn to use flowers to express your emotions with this fun and informative presentation.

Make Sustainable Choices: Hands-On Mini Family Workshop

With Debbie McGuire, a local sustainability advocate as your guide, we will be conducting experiments and demonstrations to learn about choices that have a direct impact on the environment. Topics include ways to choose toys, clothing, cleaning products, and food options with the product's carbon footprint and pollution impacts in mind. She will also cover how small everyday actions, such as composting, recycling, gardening, and choosing manually powered tools can lead to a better life for ourselves and aid the planet. This session will help fulfill requirements for Scouts, especially Environmental Science and Sustainability badges.

Butterflies & Hummingbirds in Your Garden

We all want species of butterflies and hummingbirds in our gardens because they are beautiful and fun to watch. However, they are also important pollinators. Declining Monarch butterfly populations have led them to be listed by the International Union for Conservation of Nature as an endangered species in 2022. We need to do what we can to help them survive. Sue Masoorli, Rutgers Master Gardener, will address gardening basics, including specific host flowers, water, and habitat needs.

Fire in the Pines – a Year after the Jones Road Fire

Fire is an integral part of Pine Barrens ecology. In the spring of 2025, a massive fire roared through the forest across the street from Wells Mills. This fire was named the Jones Road Fire, and it consumed over 15,000 acres. During our lecture we will discuss the value of fire and why the pines are so adapted to it. Then, for those interested, we will take a quick drive across the street into the Forked River Mountain area to observe the impact of the fire and the resilience of the Pine Barrens firsthand. Some walking will be involved. Bug spray with DEET is recommended.

Cattus Island Living Shoreline Restoration Project

Cattus Island is the most significant salt marsh and the largest breakwater in the northern portion of Barnegat Bay. The overall goal of this project is to restore critical shoreline areas of Cattus Island County Park to address significant erosion and prevent extreme wetlands and habitat loss in the Barnegat Bay. Some areas of the park have lost more than 300 feet over the past 85 years. This erosion is likely to increase over time, if the shoreline, and especially the northeast peninsula known as "Page's Point," is not stabilized. This power point presentation is an overview of the changes along the shoreline and the plans for restoration.

We will hopefully view a variety of shorebirds, including endangered Red Knots, gorging themselves on horseshoe crab eggs to double their weight and continue their 3,000+ mile migration to their breeding grounds in the Arctic. If we miss the migration, we will still seek out whatever birds we can find to make it an interesting day. Pack a lunch, dress for the weather and bring your binoculars.
